NL – New UI Mockups

The journey starts here

The screenshot displays the 'atrii' user interface. At the top left, there is a dark sidebar with navigation icons: a menu icon, a plus sign, a calendar, a document, a gear, and a search icon. The main header area includes the 'atrii' logo, a user profile icon with 'EM', and a refresh icon. The main content area features a 'Welcome back Elon Musk' message with the subtext 'Start planing your trip'. Below this is a row of seven product selection buttons: 'Flight', 'Hotel', 'Car rental', 'Rails', 'Ground transport', 'UK Parking', and 'Manual Qoute'. A red arrow points to the 'UK Parking' button. To the right of this row, the text 'Product selection' is displayed. Below the product selection row is a 'Latest trips' section with a 'View all trips' link. This section contains three trip cards: 'Trip to Milano' (status: TRIP PLANNING), 'Trip to Oslo' (status: TRIP PLANNING), and 'Trip to Genève' (status: FILNALIZED). Each card shows the trip ID (1236988), destination and dates, and the roles of the Booker (Elon Musk) and Consultant (Thomas Burberry). At the bottom of each card are user avatars (EM, SC, BC) and a set of icons representing different travel services.

With the desired search

The screenshot displays the atriiis travel booking interface. At the top left, the brand name 'atriis' is visible next to a hamburger menu icon. On the right side of the header, there are icons for a home page, a user profile labeled 'EM', and a share icon. The main content area features a large heading 'Welcome back Elon Musk' with the subtext 'Plan the best business trip'. Below this, a navigation bar includes options for Flight, Hotel, Car, Rail, Ground Transport, UK Parking, and Manual Quote. The 'Flight' option is selected. The search section is titled 'Find flights for your trip' and offers trip type selections: Round trip (selected), One way, and Multi city. It also allows searching by 'Complete trip' or 'By schedule'. The search form includes fields for 'From...' and 'To...' (Country, city or airport), 'Depart date' and 'Return date', a dropdown for 'Economy' class, and a dropdown for '1 Traveller'. There are checkboxes for 'Via' and 'Allow nearby airports' (checked). A search bar at the bottom left contains 'EM' and 'Elon Musk', and a blue 'Search' button is located at the bottom right.

The traveler fills the trip purpose

The screenshot displays the atrii travel booking interface. At the top, the user is greeted with "Welcome back Elon Musk" and "Plan the best business trip". The main navigation bar includes options for Flight, Hotel, Car, Rail, Ground Transport, UK Parking, and Manual Quote. The "Flight" section is active, showing "Find flights for your trip" with options for Round trip, One way, and Complete trip. A modal dialog titled "Trip Purpose" is open, prompting the user to fill in required information. The dialog contains a question "What is the purpose of your trip?" and two radio button options: "Business" (selected) and "Leisure". The dialog also features a "Back" button and a "Proceed to Search" button. The background interface is dimmed, showing search filters for "From... To...", "Depart", "Via", and "All" (checked).

The traveler enters his financial code

The screenshot displays the atrii booking interface. At the top, the header shows the atrii logo, a navigation menu, and user information (EM). Below the header, the main content area is titled 'Booking details' and includes a progress indicator with three steps: 'Review & Select', 'Booking Details' (the current step), and 'Confirmation'. A 'General Reference Questions' section is visible, containing a 'Financial Code' input field with the value '31' and a dropdown list of suggestions: 314569, 311478, 315987, and 316655. To the right, a 'Cart' summary shows 'Flight to Milan' for $1060.00, with a total of $1060.00 and a prominent blue 'Book & Finalize' button. A red arrow points from the text 'Book & Finalize' to this button.
